

Seoul Metropolitan Office of Education

To: Principals and Teachers in Overseas Schools

Subject: Request for cooperation in recruiting overseas schools participating in 2026 International Joint Class

To whom it may concern,

1. In order to strengthen students' global competencies and foster global citizenship, SMOE(Seoul Metropolitan Office of Education) is operating the 「International Joint Class」, a remote class exchange program between Seoul and overseas schools.
2. In particular, in 2025, 358 schools from 33 countries around the world participated in 'International Joint Class' programs to understand different cultures and form global friendships over national barriers.
3. Therefore, we would like to recruit overseas schools to participate in the 「2026 International Joint Class」 program, and request for a lot of interest and participation.
  - A. Eligibility: Elementary, middle, and high schools in overseas countries that wish to experience class exchanging programs with Korean students.
(Schools that have adopted Korean as a second language or local schools that want to carry out cultural exchange with Korea, etc.)
